Schedule D: Outside Employment and Activity

PURPOSE

The City of Hamilton recognizes that some employees desire to gain employment outside of and in addition to their position at the City. Likewise, it is recognized that some employees are greatly involved within their communities through political action or board involvement. While the City supports employees in their personal endeavors, it is essential that employees ensure that outside employment and activity does not pose a conflict of interest or misrepresent the City of Hamilton in any way.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Outside Business & Financial Activity

No employee participating in any outside business or financial activity shall do so during work hours, or use the City’s facilities or property including but not limited to vehicles, equipment, tools, photocopiers, stationery, telephones or cell phones, computers, etc., for the benefit or purpose of such business or activity.

Purchase or Lease of Real Property

No employee of the City shall directly or indirectly purchase or lease real property from or to the City, nor shall an employee have any direct or indirect interest in a company which purchases or leases real property from or to the City, unless this interest has been fully disclosed to the appropriate approving authority and unless the purchase or lease of the real property is done through a public process.

Employees Doing Business With the City

No employee shall knowingly approve or attempt to influence the approval of any license, permit, contract, agreement or other document on behalf of the City for his or her own personal use, or for the use of an individual with whom the employee has a financial or social relationship. This is in accordance with the City’s Procurement Policy By-law.

Outside Employment

Employees shall not take outside employment, including self-employment, if such employment:

- causes a real or apparent conflict of interest; or Community Board Activity

- is performed in such a way as to appear to be an official act of or to represent the City; or
- interferes with regular duties in any way, or involves the use of City premises, resources or equipment including but not limited to City e-mail, telephones, cell phones, or supplies.

Where it appears that a conflict of interest might arise in accepting outside employment, employees must notify their supervisor in writing of the nature of such outside employment prior and receive written permission prior to the acceptance of such employment (See Reporting a Conflict of Interest below).

No employee shall accept an appointment to the Board of a community agency or association that deals with matters related to the activities of the City, without the written permission of his or her General Manager or designate. Written permission of the General Manager or designate is not required if the employee is appointed to the Board of the agency or association by the City to represent the City’s interests.

Any City employee serving on a community board shall take all reasonable actions to avoid any real conflict or apparent conflict between Board activity and the City’s interests. Where a real or apparent conflict exists, the employee shall declare the conflict and shall not take part in, or be present for, any Board discussion or decision about the issue raising the conflict of interest. If the conflict of interest is significant, the employee shall resign from the board.

Political Activity

To ensure public trust in the City of Hamilton, employees must be, and appear to be, both personally impartial and free from undue political influence in the exercise of their duties.

Employees engaged in political activities must take care to separate personal political activities from their position of employment with the City.

Employees who are politically involved in Municipal, Provincial, or Federal levels of government must make it clearly understood that they are acting personally and not as representatives of the City.

Employees who are running for elected office at the municipal level must abide by the respective legislation governing such elections. This includes abiding by s. 30 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996 which requires that employees request and obtain an unpaid leave of absence beginning as of the day the employee is nominated and ending on voting day; and deems employees who are elected to office to have resigned from employment immediately before making their declaration of office.

Any employee who is politically involved shall ensure that such involvement does not interfere with his or her ability to perform his or her corporate duties objectively. Employees should not engage in any political activity during working hours, or utilize City assets resources or property. Employees shall not identify themselves as City employees when engaged in political activity (e.g. employees shall not wear clothing with the City of Hamilton logo while canvassing for a candidate). Notices, posters or similar material in support of a particular candidate or political party are not to be displayed or distributed by employees at City work sites or on City property. An employee’s decision to support a candidate or political party financially remains a personal decision.

COMPLIANCE

Every employee is expected to be aware of and act in compliance with the Code of Conduct for Employees Policy and the related Schedules. Any employee under investigation may be suspended with or without pay or be re-assigned to other duties pending completion of the investigation, depending on the particulars of the case and the best interests of the City. Where there is a serious wrongdoing, as defined in the Whistleblower By-law, that By-law applies. Violations of this Schedule may result in appropriate disciplinary measures, up to and including dismissal.
