The City of Hamilton owns, maintains and operates various drinking water systems. The City is committed to:

- Safe: Safe, high quality, consistent supply of drinking water
- Always improving: Always improving the Drinking Water Quality Management System
- Following and complying: Following and complying with applicable legislation
- Effective and open communication: Effective and open communication with the community concerning matters of drinking water quality